

“MGCC” MENGO CAMPING CLUB

GOLD MEMBERSHIP AND GUEST RULES AND REGULATIONS

We would like to make this an enjoyable experience for all campers, so we ask that you abide by the following rules. Becoming a member of “Mengo Camping Club” you and your registered guests agree to abide by all rules and regulations.

“Mengo Camping Club” is a private campground which requires one to have a valid membership. Membership can be defined as gold which is seasonal or silver which is for occasional campers. Membership is annual May to Oct with the start and ending depending on weather. Gold members can access their site all year round.

“Mengo Camping Club” is an all-inclusive campground and welcomes all individuals regardless of one’s personal lifestyle and religious beliefs. So, if you are uncomfortable with two men, two women, a man and a woman showing affection in public such as kissing, holding hands or embracing then this campground is not for you. The Spiritual norm is that we welcome those who “treat others as they wish to be treated” with respect, love and acceptance. If this is not part of your belief system then you need to find another place to camp. Thank You=

General rules

- All individuals “members and guests” must check in/ sign in at the Office/store. This is for your security and safety in case of emergency to account for everyone on the property. Thank you for this compliance. This is a private member’s camping club so any names in our register are considered confidential and will not be shared with any outside source unless deemed an emergency.
- Mengo camping club is a private camping club please keep things tidy and clean. Please pick up after yourself and use appropriate places to dispose of any garbage. As a private club we expect members and guests to uphold a reasonable level of etiquette and conscious behavior when camping.
- Seasonal sites are not guaranteed from year to year unless a non-refundable deposit (min $100.00) is paid no later than Oct annually. (This means you are securing a site at the end of the season for the next one).
- Maximum number of structures per site consists of; one trailer, one shed and deck that complies with Mengo camping Club standards.

- All maintenance requests must be directed to the office.
- Any and all contractors must have preapproval prior to any work being started at your site. At no time can changes or modifications be made to Mengo Camping Club infrastructure.
- The seasonal site is intended for the occupant use as listed in the membership contract. At no time is the occupant permitted to sublet or rent out their site to another party.
- These rules form part of the membership contract for your site and may be amended from time to time.
- No smoking in any/all buildings and restrooms. This is Nova Scotia law.
- Speed limit is 15 kph in the entire campground. Please keep children safe!
- Quiet time is between 11 PM to 8 AM daily. All children must be with parents at campsite by 11 PM.
- Radio's and TV's should not be heard beyond your site. No loud gatherings or parties. Please be considerate of your neighbor's.
- Camp Fires – must be in the rings provided. NEVER leave a fire unattended and extinguish before turning in for the night or when leaving the campground.
- Children- Parents are responsible for children at all times. Please do not leave children unattended.

Fees

- All fees are due and payable according to the seasonal fee structure.
- All outstanding charges, if any, must be settled prior to Nov 15th each year.
- Failure to do so will result in Mengo Camping Club refusing to provide you with winter storage and the forfeit of your site for the following season.
- Failure to make arrangements for payments can result in your RV being moved by management to an Un-serviced site. A fee for moving and keeping the RV at that location will be applied to the individual's bill.
- Acceptable forms of payment are credit cards, cash, debit and e-transfer. Cheques are not acceptable.
- Seasonal campers pay their own power. The campground is designed with inline meters. Every second month each sites power use will be calculated and billed to them. Failure to pay one's power bill may result in that utility being switched off. Unpaid power bills will be charged a nominal monthly interest rate.

Trailers

- Trailers more than 10 years old must be approved by Mengo Camping Club before they will be permitted in the park.
- Mengo camping Club reserves the right to refuse acceptance of trailers that are in need of significant repair or are poorly maintained regardless of age.

- Fires must be contained within the approved firepits and under control at all times. Fires must not be left unattended at any time. Construction materials, pallets, lumber etc....cannot be burned in the fire pits.
- Liquid accelerants are strictly prohibited to be used as fire starters.
- In the event of a fire ban, all site occupants are expected to comply with the order of the fire chief or fire marshal. Failure to do so could result in fines being levied by the issuing authority and/or your eviction from the park.

Alcohol Policy;

- Nova Scotia legal drinking age is 19 – this law will be enforced. Alcohol is not permitted in any common areas.
- Alcohol is permitted on an occupants' site. Occupants are not permitted to walk around the park with open alcohol. Open alcohol found in vehicles may result in eviction from the park.
- An occupant who supplies or allows access to alcohol to minors will be evicted from the park.

Firearms and fireworks;

- Are PROHIBITED in the campground. This includes all types of guns, BB guns, paintball guns etc.... Fireworks are not permitted as a courtesy/accommodation for members who have pets and as a fire hazard precaution. Sparklers are permitted around the fire pits.

Photography;

- Common courtesy is the rule. In the age of smart phones many people enjoy snapping pictures and sometimes post them on the internet or other media. Mengo Camping Club is a "PRIVATE" campground please respect everyone's right to privacy. While we enjoy people taking pictures of the campground please ask before taking pictures that include people.

Naturalist section:

MENGO Camping Club has a designated area for nude sunbathing called the “Pecker Patch”. When entering or leaving the Patch one must be clothed.

MENGO is “clothes on” except for this one special area.

Currently this is a “mens only” section.

 In the event women join MENGO’s membership and request it. An area will be made available for their use. Once created this new area will be only for women.

Disruptive Behaviour

- Mengo Camping Club uses the “3 Strike rule” unless police are involved.
- Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. If the situation is settled by management peacefully it will be recorded and count as a first strike. Depending on the severity of the disruption any second offense may result in management evicting said camper(s) ASAP without further explanation. If someone gets a third strike the individual(s) will be asked to leave the campground immediately. There will be no refunds to any person in this situation. Please do not put yourselves or management in this situation. Bottom line 3 strikes you’re out!
- If the POLICE are called by management or another camper, due to disruptive behavior and charged with an offense, this camper or campers will be immediately required to leave the campground. This includes seasonal campers, with the seasonal agreement becoming void. There will be no refunds to any person in this situation. Please do not put yourselves and management in this situation.
- Smoking policy, please keep smoking (cigarettes / marijuana) to your site. Even though it may be tempting to wander around while smoking it does create a fire hazard and some people do not enjoy the smell of second-hand smoke. A good rule while visiting another’s site is ask if it’s okay to light up.
- 11.00pm nightly is quiet time. Outdoor radios, TV’s and other entrainment systems must be turned off. Indoor radio’s, Tv’s and other equipment shouldn’t be heard outside or negatively affect other campers.
- Although 11.00pm is designated as quiet time. It is expected that all times during the day occupants will not in any way infringe upon or disturb other campers. This means radios, TV’s and other entrainment systems to be kept at a reasonable volume, and conversations and activities at a level not disruptive to theirs.
- Children and teens under the age of 18 must return to their sites by 11pm nightly.
- No-one is permitted in the non-camping areas once closed for the day. This includes but is not limited to; swimming pool. Anyone in these areas once closed will be considered trespassing.

Guests and Day Visitors:

- Guests are defined as individuals signed in by members.
- Day Visitors may hold memberships but are not camping overnight.
- If a member wishes his/her guest to remain overnight the following rules apply:
 - 1) If the guest(s) are staying in the members RV/tent then there is no fee.
 - 2) If a guest is pitching a tent, using an RV then the regular fees for such use are applied.
 - 3) Members have a special feature where they can sign in guests This is a privilege and should be not be abused. MENGO Camping Club expects a member may sign in 2 guests on occasion. If one desires to have more than two arrangements should be made with the management to accommodate.
 - 4) Members are responsible for their guests and their behavior while they visit MENGO. It is expected the member to inform their guest of the rules and regulations of the park and they act accordingly. Failure for one's guest to comply with the rules and regulations may jeopardize one's membership.
 - 5) Members CAN NOT sign in individuals who have been refused membership, banned or blocked by management. (Management does NOT have to explain the reason(s) for an individual being denied access to the property).
- Guest and Day Visitor vehicles must be parked in the designated area for guests.
- All guests must register at the office when they arrive and indicate when they leave. Anyone who enters the campground without checking in at the office will be required to leave immediately.
- Guests and Day Visitors must leave the park by 10.00pm nightly.

Bicycles;

- Everyone is required to wear a helmet (Nova Scotia Law). Children must have bikes back at the site they're staying at before dark. Please do not park bikes in front of doors or pool gate.

Office/store;

- Hours are posted on the door. Vary by season.

Restrooms;

- Please remove all personal items from restrooms after use. Any articles left in the restroom will be disposed of when the restroom is cleaned. Restrooms are always open unless being cleaned.

Wood;

- Is for sale at the office. There is NO cutting of trees or branches permitted on the campground or neighbor's property. Nova Scotia law bans burning of pressure treated woods and moving any type of wood from other Canadian provinces or from the United States due to insects and other invasive species contained in wood products. (Example Spruce bud worm and the spread of Dutch Elm disease) When in question ask management.
- Wood is $5.00 a crate

Trash;

- You can dispose of trash in the designated bins. Please note the different bins:
 - 1) paper + cardboard
 - 2) cans + plastics
 - 3) recyclables (pop cans etc.)
 - 4) general garbage. -

Sale of trailers

- Occupants wishing to sell their trailer may post a sign at no charge in the office. For sale signs are NOT to be posted at an occupant's trailer or site.
- Seasonal sites are NOT transferrable. Should an occupant sell their trailer. The site is returned to Mengo camping Club and the new purchaser must submit a new seasonal application. Just because a person sells their trailer does not guarantee the new owner automatically is granted a site. Bear in mind there is probably a "waiting list" for sites.
- Mengo Camping Club reserves the right to decide whether new owners:
 1. May use the existing site
 2. May have another available site on the campground
 3. Must leave the existing site and the campground.

Winter Storage

- Trailers may from time to time be granted space over the winter for parking storage. These trailers are not permanent and must meet the conditions set down by Mengo Camping Club for the duration of the season.

- . Vehicles, utility trailer, etc. are not to be left on winter storage site unless arrangements have been made with the office.
- Winter storage fees must be paid in advance and a descriptive contract must be signed prior to trailer or times being stored.
- Any trailer/items stored is required to have appropriate up to date insurance. A copy of the insurance is to be submitted with the storage application.
- Any trailer moved to winter storage without a signed agreement will be removed from the property at the owner's expense.
- You are required to place your trailer, with proper site identification in the window on the site you are assigned.

General rule;

Mengo Camping Club; ALL management and employees reserve the right to refuse service to anyone noncompliant with campground rules and regulations. We also reserve the right to change the rules and regulations at any time to protect the safety of all campers. All activities in the campground are done at the individuals free will and Mengo Camping Club will not be responsible for accidents or injury to guests, or loss of money or valuables of any kind.

Insurance:

- Mengo camping Club is not responsible for any damage caused by other campers, natural disasters, negligence, theft, or loss of electricity. If you have concerns please obtain the necessary insurance to cover your possessions.
